The Taftville Kaceys made it six straight by taking the first of the three-game series from Danielson at Danielson at Donielson on Friday evenng. The Taftville boys won by a score of 35 to 24.

The Taftville team started the game

st a fast clip but the Danielson boys were equal to the pace and the score that the end of the frst haif was 16 to 14 in favor of Taftville. The game was equally as fast and snappy in the sec-ond haif as it was in the first but the Taftville boys were more consist tent in their shooting and at the fine basis whistle had piled up 19 points against paris Danielson's 10. Mills and Jim Murphy were the high point scorers for Taffweile, Mills eaging six and Murphy 4.
The other scoring was done by Belair

OF THE LEGAL PROFESSION

Philadelphia: March 24.—Establishing of contact between the bar and law students, to give the latter a higher conception of the responsibility of the legal profession in nublic service, was suggested today by Dr. William Draper Lewis, former dean of the University of Pennsylvania law school, in an address before the national conference of legal aid bureaus and societies.

James B. Reynolds, of North Haven, Conn., president of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, proposed that the legal profession give more attention to the work of public defenders. Frequently, he said, needy defendants have assigned to them by courts attorneys who are "more deprayed than the defendants."
